Applicant agrees that this application is correct and that no material facts have been withheld. Applicant understands that the insurance applied for will not be effective until the application is approved by an authorized representative of the association or company, and further understands that the insurance will be subject to all terms, conditions and provisions of a policy to be issued based on this application. Applicant agrees that all premiums levied under the policy will be paid when due and understands the insurance-to-value requirements necessary on unscheduled farm personal property (blanket) owned by the applicant at the time of loss. Personal information about you, including information from a credit report, may be collected from persons other than you, in connection with this application for insurance and subsequent renewals. Such information as well as other personal and privileged information collected by us or our agents may in certain circumstances be disclosed to third parties without your authorization. You have the right to review your personal information in our files and can request correction of any inaccuracies. A more detailed description of your rights and our practices regarding such information is available upon request. Contact your agent or broker for instructions on how to submit a request to us. State law requires that we inform you that we will consider your claims history in determining whether to decline, cancel, nonrenew or surcharge the policy for which you are applying. In addition, any claim made by you will be reported to an insurance support organization. Any person who knowingly and with intent to defraud any insurance company or another person files an application for insurance containing any materially false information or conceals for the purpose of misleading information concerning any fact material thereto, commits a fraudulent insurance act, which is a crime and subjects the person to criminal and civil penalties.
